Does Redevelopment Have a Future?

Join Commercial Real Estate Women Of Los Angeles (CREW-LA) with speakers Gillian van Muyden and Julie Romey for our April luncheon!

Governor Jerry Brown proposed elimination of California's redevelopment agencies in July 2011.

- What is the State Legislature doing with Governor Brown's proposal?
- How have the local communities reacted to this proposal?
- What are the impacts of disbanding the State's 425 redevelopment agencies?
- How will local governments be expected to meet ongoing obligations of redevelopment agencies?

Our speakers will share the latest news and their insights about redevelopment.

Gillian van Muyden is General Counsel of the Glendale Redevelopment Agency. She has advised the City of Glendale on numerous redevelopment projects including Rick Caruso's Americana at Brand. Gillian is the current Chair of the Real Property Law Section of the State Bar of California and was the managing editor of the California Real Property Journal.

Julie Romey is a Senior Principal in the Los Angeles office of Keyser Marston Associates. At Keyser Marston, Julie has participated in structuring development, mixed-use and affordable residential projects in Long Beach, Pasadena, Anaheim, Los Angeles, Burbank and Hollywood. She is an expert in affordable housing programs, including redevelopment agencies' housing programs. She co-taught the "Planning and Economic Development Finance" class at USC and is now a guest speaker.
