Commercial Real Estate Women-Los Angeles
Again Ranked on California Real Estate Journal's Top Associations List

LOS ANGELES, CA – For the third consecutive year, the Los Angeles chapter of Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW-LA), a national organization which provides a professional forum for enhancing business development, industry expertise, networking opportunities and personal growth for its members and the community, has been ranked on California Real Estate Journal's "Top Associations" list. Results were based on a 2009 survey conducted by California Real Estate Journal.

"It's gratifying to be recognized for several years running," said 2009 President, Tori Robinson, Vice President at Old Republic Title Company. "This underscores CREW-LA's commitment to generating personal and professional development opportunities for our members, and further promoting the commercial real estate industry at large."

The Commercial Real Estate Women-Los Angeles (CREW-LA) Board of Directors is comprised of top-level real estate executives from all aspects of the real estate industry. As one of 68 member organizations in the Commercial Real Estate Women Network (CREW Network), CREW-LA facilitates communication and promotes interaction among 8,400 real estate professionals locally, as well as on a regional and national level.
